

DISCOVER COLORADO'S FOSSIL TRACE GOLF CLUB

Fossil Trace Golf Club - Ranked as one of Denver's Best Golf Courses

Fossil Trace Golf Club opened in July of 2003 in the historic Colorado city of Golden. The course opened approximately 64-million years after the first dinosaurs walked where holes 11 through 15 now sit. Fossil Trace Golf Club is widely considered Denver Colorado's premier public golf course, designed by renowned golf course architect Jim Engh.

Fossil Trace Golf Club is nestled adjacent to the foothills of the Rocky Mountain Front Range. As you navigate the course and its rolling topography; large, undulating fairways and greens are matched with treacherous greenside and fairway bunkers. These features create a modern test of golf in a truly inspirational location. The shadows of the foothills and majestic Table Mountain guide players through the variety of character-laden holes. Experience a mountain course feel in an urban setting only 20-minutes drive west from downtown Denver, Colorado.
